

never offend anyone with Biblical truth, which is the Gospel of JESUS MESSIAH.

BUT amongst all this mass turning away from GOD and HIS Word, and hidden by the smoke and dust of the Political ranting and speech making, there exists a Remnant people, within that which calls itself HIS Church, a small Holy Nation, a Chosen Race, a Royal Priesthood, a people set aside for GOD's own possession.

These are the true Bible believing Born Again Christian people, who are not part of this crazy GOD denying World. My Friends, seek them out, they will show you JESUS through HIS Precious Gospel " CHRIST ON THE CROSS AND HIM CRUCIFIED FOR SIN, IN YOUR PLACE AND IN MINE",

Dear Friend, don't die in your sin, you must be Born Again, unless you are Reborn in your Spirit you will never see the KINGDOM of Heaven.

Call upon JESUS to save you today. If you die unsaved, you will wait in the terrible confines of HELL, to eventually be called to stand before the Judge of your Soul, then you and all those who have likewise died in their sin ,will be thrown into the Lake of Fire.

This is the Eternal condition of those who did not accept the LORD of GLORY. The Judge will be JESUS Himself. The very One you choose not to listen to today, when you do not call on HIS Name for your Salvation.

So if you sense that GOD is calling you today, and HE is my Friend, then ask HIM now for Mercy, only HE can save you. He went to the Cross to die in your place, and took your punishment upon HIMSELF.

That is how much the Creator of this Universe loves you.

When you look around you at this incredible Creation, when you look up at the Stars in the Night Sky, this is HIS Creation, it testifies of HIM, and you are a part of that Creation, for GOD so loved the World that HE sent HIS only begotten SON, JESUS, so that who ever believes on HIM will not perish but have ETERNAL LIFE. AMEN.. John 3:16

The Word Of GOD Believe It Or Not

Standing On The Promises Of GOD

Dennis Brown

I am continually saddened when I hear Christians express differing views concerning Genesis Chapter 1 of their Bibles.

In fact I am continually saddened by the way many professing Christians believe the Big Bang version of how this universe came into existence, our belief can only be based upon the Biblical version word for word or do you instead believe version 27 of the latest scientific attempt to explain just how we happened to arrive at our existence here today and not have to acknowledge God's hand in this Universe's Creation.

Very early in my Christian journey I found that I had to make that decision, between God's Word and His account of Creation, or believe instead the many emerging theories about how we "got" here.

I chose to believe God's Word, word for word. And that is, about 6,000 years ago, GOD Almighty selected a place in His Realm of Eternity and made this Earth and the time and Space Realm in which it would exist, which we call the universe.

The very first thing GOD put in place on that first day was of course LIGHT, because all the rules of Nature which were to Govern this "reality" of this new realm of time and space in which Human Kind were to live, would be Governed by LIGHT.

One of the covering properties of LIGHT was it's speed in the vacuum of space, which is 186,000 MPS or 300,000 KPS now that 's mind-bendingly fast...isn't it?

But that's not all God did over the 6 consecutive days of HIS Creation Work.

GOD put the Universe together, and Planet Earth with all it needed to operate, the Sun, Moon and Stars the Land and Sea. Animals, Trees and Plant life all done in just those 6 days and these were 6 individual literal days, not millions of years as some would have you believe. The whole Universe was in place and the Bible tells us that this all occurred about 6,000 years ago, no doubting that was the case and I believe it to be correct.

who will follow JESUS during those last 7 years and almost every Jew. But just when it seems that all will die, the LORD JESUS MESSIAH will return and HE comes as the KING of Israel the Remnant which He hid in the Desert, Whom HE will save. After HIS return will commence the last 1000 year KINGDOM I spoke of earlier. The KINGDOM where JESUS is LORD and Ruler over all the Earth.

So MY Friend, mankind is not going to spread out throughout this Time and Space Universe like the "Star Ship Enterprise" and it's crew of enlightened female Social Workers as the T.V. programme would suggest. Don't put your faith in failed Science and man's Godless theories.

All Science does, is to dream up and manufacture bigger and better weapons of war, mankind is not evolving into little gods full of peace and harmony. It is not within our human nature to get better. Science itself tells us mankind can only degenerate, sadly the 6 pm news confirms this, evening by evening. Look at where Society is going, where is the family unit? where are our good fathers and role models? what are they today but mostly beaten down "Politically Correct" wimps, too frightened of being accused by the same world as opinionated Bigots and Racists, whilst the World call evil good and good evil, and twist that which is straight.

Today, there are few good men left to stand up and call it for what it is. The faulty Churches and Denominations of the World are not much better than most news journalists, who will not let the truth get in the way of a good Political story. So likewise, apostate Bible teachers will not let the Biblical truth get in the way of their Politically Correct doctrines. Look at what they have done with the Biblical concept of the word LOVE. Being loving now means the blanket acceptance of false doctrine taught as truth. It means acceptance of all sinful behaviour calling good evil and evil good, it means a refusal to rebuke or expose anyone who Preaches evil doctrines within the Church and to,

But today we see more and more Scientists coming to a place where they admit that the many Big Bang theories are wrong or flawed and some even now state that there MUST be a GOD who made all this complexity.

This is still a long way from a belief in the saving Grace of GOD through HIS SON, JESUS MESSIAH, but it's a start.

SO, Quantum Science itself is now requiring in some areas that a Creator GOD must exist. And in this reality in which we live, our Bibles tell us this Universe is just 6,000 year old.

The Bible also suggests that we as a people, existing in this created time and space Universe, have a little over 1,000 Biblical Years left to run, and that will become evident. Once the imminent judgement, that is the Rapture of GOD's true Remnant, that makes up HIS Church takes place, then will come about the end of the Church Age.

My Friends. a time of judgement is rushing toward us who live on this Earth at the Speed of LIGHT. It isn't visible because it, like the sunlight of which I spoke earlier, hasn't arrived yet. BUT it will and when Almighty GOD sends HIS SON, JESUS MESSIAH back to Earth to gather HIS Bride, out of the 1 or 2 % which appears to be the true number of those who are Born Again People and belong solely to HIM, and who stand as the Remnant in the Church, (for not all Christians are Christians), then the last 1000 years of Earth's History will be about to begin.

And after JESUS MESSIAH initiates the Rapture, HE will send upon those left behind a series of judgements, 21 of them in all. He will allow a false Messiah and with him a false Prophet to tear this World's Societies apart in a 7 year reign of terror.

When over 1/2 of the people on this Planet will die by the Antichrist's Governmental organisation and with the aid of his false prophet.

During the seven years of Tribulation, this system will hunt down and kill those

So that raise a problem doesn't it? There is a big gap between Sciences 13 something billion years and the 6,000 years evidenced in the Biblical account. So if you are a Christian I must ask you to consider these following points VERY carefully.

If there was a Big Bang, what brought it into existence? What went Bang? And how then did this complexity of life itself evolve? was there a random accident or a series of random accidents...?

My Friends Science itself says that can't occur. There can only be Devolution because complex structures can NOT appear from chaos, and with every mutation or change in structure, be it organic or non organic will ultimately only slide down in energy or entropy, De- evolution in other words according to the first and second Laws of thermodynamics. Creatures disimprove and die, they do not go on to improve and grow into greater things.

An Analogy

Practitioners of Evolution would have you believe that a pile of organic and inorganic material exploded, and out of that explosion fell a salesman in a sharp suit with a carton addressed to you containing a complete edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, leather bound, and without a single error. In fact it's better to say the sales man and his Encyclopedia blew up and down came a pile of inorganic and organic material. In a chaotic mess.

So did we evolve up out of the Primordial Slime Pit as some sort of creepy crawly, and eventually morph into humans ? or did GOD Almighty make us perfect in that first week? And from then on we, because of sin, are slowly heading down to the Slime Pit?

How could the DNA within our very cells with it's billions of encoding data happen by chance? And then grow more complex and intricate ? this is scientific nonsense, because all mutations loose information they do not or cannot gain information (or improve the original design)

Obviously then we didn't evolve and those who flog their many "get GOD out of the picture" theories know deep down within their very souls that they are in error. It is in fact a Spiritual problem and not a Scientific one.

So what then is the Reality that we observe. Science is only man's attempts to describe this reality in which we live. I mentioned light as being so very important, because it is the cosmic speed limit of all things, including everything in time and space over which light plays an important part....

Take our Sun, the Sun is an average small Star, the light of which sustains all life on this Planet, this Star is situated in just exactly the right place in our Galaxy, in an outer arm that has enormous dust and gas clouds which shield us from the enormous radiation which is deadly to all life on Earth, and emanates from the Centre of the Galaxy.

Take our Planet, situated in an exact circular orbit around the Sun, just right for us to exist, 1% either way and we wouldn't be here at all.

This Earth has exactly the right speed of rotation, exactly the right axial tilt and a Large stabilising Moon of exactly the right orbit and distance from us so we might live, a giant Cosmic accident ? I think not my Friend .

But Science continues to deny the existence of GOD, in pushing their impossible theories which they teach our school and University kids as a fact.

Let's get back to LIGHT, it takes about 8 minutes for the Light from the Sun to arrive here on Earth, along with its gravity and many other types of effects which we experience and understand. If the Sun were to suddenly disappear, we on Earth wouldn't know it was gone for 8 minutes, because of the speed of LIGHT.

Then after 8 minutes had passed from the time of the Sun's disappearance, we would see it and feel it and our Planet and all the Solar System as well would likewise fly off into outer Space.

So, when we look up at the Stars in our night sky we see them as they were, not as where they are now. A Star which is 1,000 LIGHT YEARS away may not even exist today. We see them as they were in the past according to their distance from us in Light Years, are they still there today ? No one knows, no one can know, only GOD knows for HE made them all on the 4th day of Creation and He did this about 6,000 years ago according to our Bibles.

So those Stars which we see that are more than 6,000 light years away, probably exist only as a picture or Hologram or a back drop so to speak. There are elements within Quantum Physics which today agree with this scenario. Because what we actually see and what is stark reality are not necessarily the same thing. Almighty GOD brought into being, this time and Space Universe in which we live and it operates according to HIS rules and not ours, and GOD, in doing so gave mankind the opportunity to come up with every possible description of what he observes and he, man, does so in an effort to eliminate GOD from His own Creation.

So, whilst GOD deniers can wax Scientifically about a big bang, they can't explain how God has arranged what we observe, I can't exactly say how it works, no one can, ONLY GOD, can and one day will give the explanation at which man can only guess.

But from the information contained in the Word of GOD, our Bibles, we can deduce an approximation of what we can see and what we cannot see. But GOD does not move behind the scenes, He moves the Scenes He is behind.

My Friend a long time ago I chose to believe my Bible and so must every Christian, I believe all of it from cover to cover.

Every Word of HOLY SCRIPTURE comes exclusively from GOD.
